The development review board first listened to a presentation made by Debra Bell on behalf of Daniel and Larry Pillsbury for the subdivision of the Breezy Valley Farm property located on Vermont Route 2A. The public was invited to comment. It was decided that a site visit should be scheduled. The matter was tabled until the site visit could take place and further consideration will be continued at the next available development review board meeting.

The development review board then listened to a presentation made by Sheila McIntyre on behalf of Rita Martel, Ray Martel and Jane Stowell for a subdivision of Lakeview Farms located off of Martel Lane and Oak Hill Road. The public was invited to comment. It was decided that a site visit should be scheduled. The matter was tabled until the next DRB meeting on May 9, 2007.

Ed Hanson gave the development review board a monthly update.
