

RESULTS FROM THE ST. GEORGE HISTORICAL COMMITTEE
TOWN MEETING SURVEY – March 6, 2007

28 Surveys were completed and turned in.

Question 1.

How important do you consider the preservation of the town's historic buildings & structures to be for the future of St. George?

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|----|
| a. Entirely irrelevant | 3 |
| b. Of little importance | 2 |
| c. Somewhat important | 5 |
| d. Very important | 12 |
| e. Essential to the town's integrity | 6 |

Question 2.

If legal and financial obstacles to saving the Little Red Schoolhouse are solved, how interested would you be in seeing the Schoolhouse adaptively reused; i.e., restored, revitalized and integrated with the Town Center or proposed historic district?

- | | |
|--------------------------|----|
| a. Not at all interested | 5 |
| b. Mildly interested | 1 |
| c. Somewhat interested | 0 |
| d. Very interested | 11 |
| e. Extremely interested | 11 |

Question 3.

If a town fund were created to support any long-term historic preservation goals determined by town residents, how much would you be willing to increase your property taxes to support such a fund?

- | | |
|-----------------|----|
| a. $0 | 5 |
| b. $1- $25 | 6 |
| c. $25 - $50 | 10 |
| d. $51 - $100 | 3 |
| e. Over $100 | 4 |

Three comments were written on the surveys.

- Let's save the schoolhouse!
- Could the schoolhouse become the town library?
- Let's give St. George residents the opportunity to work on the schoolhouse before we hire outside help.